Attention: Editor

Dear Sir,

Replying to "Letters to the Southern Courier" concerning Parking Meters in the City of Randwick, December 19th 2006, January 23rd and January 30th 2007, from the Liberal Candidate for Coogee, Mr. Jonathan Flegg and RCC Mayor, Mr. Paul Tracey, I would like to point out that the NO PARKING METERS PARTY has its number one policy on parking meters at the next Randwick City Council elections.

I would like to challenge the Liberals, Labor and the Greens who are standing in the Coogee, Maroubra and Heffron electorates for the NSW State elections not to grandstand on the No Parking Meters Party's issues.

I further wish to challenge those candidates on State issues to explain to the electorates what their intentions are, if elected, on:

1. Water and The Environment,
2. Law and order,
3. Education,
4. Hospitals,
5. Dental,
6. Transport,
7. Roads,
8. Retention and staffing of local Police Stations,
9. Stamp Duty and Land Tax, and
10. Youth discipline, particularly in schools, family home and as vehicle drivers.

I would like the candidates to reply to these 10 issues and not 'cloud-the-waters' by grandstanding on the No Parking Meters Party's policies.
